We are pleased to announce a Call for Nominations for Region of Waterloo Diversity Awards, to be presented at the TCA 30th anniversary celebration on Saturday May 04, 2019, at the Holiday Inn Kitchener.

Our aim is to recognize individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the vitality and well-being of our region by honouring them as Champions of Community and Diversity.

Associations, organizations as well as individuals throughout the Region of Waterloo area are welcome to nominate deserving individuals from any field or background. Nominations from the following categories are especially welcome: Youth (25 and under); Business; Arts & culture; Volunteer; Learning/education and Organisation/Project.

The nominations will be evaluated by a committee that will operate at arm's length from TCAWR and the partner organizations, in closed, confidential sessions.

Criteria that will be taken into consideration include cultural upliftment, record of service and impact, both within a particular community or association, and in the community at large. We are looking for exemplary contributions from individuals with qualities such as visionary, well-rounded, determined, and committed. Individuals cannot nominate their own family members. All nominees and nominators are present during award presentation.

To facilitate the process, we request that you complete the application form no later than April 15 2019. Nomination submitting to diversitywaterloo@gmail.com
